Monday

Let's Review: Present Tense -AR Verbs/ Los Verbos "-AR"

- Let's begin conjugating -ar verbs.
- Conjugating verbs in Spanish can be complex, and requires significant practice.
- Conjugating verbs ensures that the form of the verb matches the pronoun used.
- Now that we will be able to use verbs correctly with subject pronouns, we have to change the verb to fit the pronoun. We wouldn't say "yo hablar" because that means "I to speak." Essentially, we have to change the verb to hablo so it corresponds with the pronoun.
- Copy -AR endings in Present Tense Chart/Identify 5 -AR verbs in Spanish

-AR endings in Present Tense

YO (I)	-O	nosotros nosotras (we)	-amos
tú (you)	-as	vosotros vosotras (you plural)	* -áis
él (he) ella (she) usted (you formal)	-a	ellos (they) ellas (they females) ustedes (you plural)	-an

*the vosotros/vosotras form is used in Spain in addition to ustedes.
In Latin America, ustedes is used for the plural you exclusively.

Tuesday

Let's Review: Present Tense -ER Verbs/ Los Verbos "-ER"

- Let's begin conjugating -er verbs.
- Conjugating verbs in Spanish can be complex, and requires significant practice.
- Conjugating verbs ensures that the form of the verb matches the pronoun used.
- Now that we will be able to use verbs correctly with subject pronouns, we have to change the verb to fit the pronoun. We wouldn't say "yo comer" because that means "I to eat." Essentially, we have to change the verb to como so it corresponds with the pronoun.
